> The fair this year will be held Sej-tember 7th-14th. Those who have never attended the Interstate Fair should by all means attend this year. Those who have been fortunate in forer years to be present at the great annual live stock shows at that point should not fail to go this year to see the tremendous progress that has been made in the territory surrounding Sioux City during the last year, as it will be shown at the fair. It is conidently expected that the volume of fine cuttle, borses, sheep and swine will far surpass anything that has ever been seen at that hustling fair in for-
